THIRTY-SEVENTH YEAR

LIMA, OHIO, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1922

PRICE THREE CENTS

3 SHOT IN STREET BATTLE

DECISION STOPS RATE FIGHT

Will Not Further Pursue Lima Natural Gas Company

WON'T GO TO U. S. COURT

Too Expensive to Appeal Case, City Commission Thinks

Fight against the decision of the state public utilities' decision on the price of natural gas will be abandoned by the city commission, it was indicated at city hall Saturday.

While no official action has been taken by the commission, it was the opinion of Commissioner Ellis Jones and Manager C. A. Bingham that any further action would be not only expensive, but unfruitful. It was pointed out that it would be necessary to carry the fight into the supreme court of the United States and with conditions as they are at present, the city cannot afford to continue the battle.

Commissioners have watched the negotiations being carried on in other cities relative to gas prices with considerable interest, but no action tending toward reopening direct conferences with the Lima Gas company will be attempted now, it was said.

In several other Ohio cities where the gas companies have been upheld in their contention by the courts or the public utilities commission, they have permitted the city to reopen the question by direct negotiations.

There is no indication, however, that the city commission will ask the Lima Gas company to arbitrate the decision of the supreme court, but will abide by the ruling for the time being at least.

U. S. TO FORCE DEBT SHOWDOWN

PAYROLLS SEIZED BY BANDITS

Two Daring Holdups Are Staged in Cleveland

BANDS ESCAPE WITH $22,000

Employees Are Lined Up While Cash Is Taken

CLEVELAND—(United Press)—The payroll of the Ohio Buick Company, amounting to $7,450.68, was taken from the company's messenger when he was on his way from the bank to the plant in a second payroll robbery today.

CLEVELAND—(United Press)—Three armed bandits held up and robbed the offices of the Perry Cap and Set Screw Company today after holding 25 girls and the general manager of the company at bay. The bandits escaped with $15,000 taken from the office of H. D. North, secretary.

Shortly after 9 a. m. one bandit entered the general offices on the second floor of the building and pointed a gun at Miss Catherine Knisely, 21, telephone operator.

In full view, behind a glass partition sat L. C. Hoffman, general manager and 24 girls at work.

EMPLOYEES LINED UP
As Miss Knisely left the board, the bandit motioned her in with the others and then covered them all with his revolver.

"Keep still, all of you," he ordered, "and you'll not be hurt." Meantime two other bandits had entered the offices on the other side of the building where the payroll money was kept in a safe. In some manner they broke into the office of Secretary North. Then they seized $15,000 in cash and ran down the stairway to the street, calling loudly to the three bandit to "cover up" and follow. In the street the bandits leaped into a touring car and sped away. Police flying squadrons dispatched to the scene ascertained that part of the city was out of order.

Police later were told that Secretary North was prevented from entering his office by one of the bandits when another was at work seizing the money.

PARLEY BATTLE IN SENATE ENDS

Economic Conference Measure Is Withdrawn by Borah

WASHINGTON—(Associated Press)—Altho privately stating that he was prepared to offer it as an amendment to some other bill should the necessity arise, Senator Borah's decision to withhold his proposal for an international economic conference as an amendment to the naval appropriation bill was regarded today as having finally disposed of it and settled the immediate issue which has held the senate in its grip for nearly a week.

The Idaho senator's announcement that he would withhold the proposed amendment came as the climax of the senate battle late yesterday after administration assurances had been given by Senator Watson of Indiana that the president already was sounding out the situation in a way which might lead to a movement aiding in the adjustment of economic conditions in Europe.

FRANCE OPPOSES INDEMNITY PLAN

Calls Hughes' Proposal for Commission Unfair

FAVORED BY OTHER NATIONS

Effort to Influence Premier's Meet, Paris Officials Say

BY A. L. BRADFORD
WASHINGTON—(United Press)—France alone in withholding acceptance of American intervention in Europe.

Great Britain, Germany and some other nations concerned, it was learned from a high administration official today, already have informally indicated their willingness to accept the American proposal—an international commission of business men and financial experts to recommend a just and practicable division of German reparations. The United States would be represented on the commission.

The official revelation of the American plan for bringing Europe out of its present economic chaos was made by President Harding here and Secretary of State Hughes in an address at New Haven last night to force a "showdown" as to whether the United States can aid Europe.

France has not rejected the proposal, but for some time has been withholding its attitude regarding it.

Tired of waiting for the French government to decide to force the issue, by making the proposal public.

BERNHARDT'S RETURN TO STAGE MAY BE DELAYED

PARIS—Whether Sarah Bernhardt who announced yesterday that she would return to the stage next Wednesday, can persuade her physicians that she is ready for the opening performance of "Un Sujet de Roman" seems problematical. Doctors and friends believe it may be necessary to keep her from the theatre a while longer. "If I rested too long I wouldn't live," she asserted.

SHERIFF TAKEN ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Iowa Official Arrested on Eve of Retirement

DES MOINES, Ia.—(United Press)—Winifred Robb, sheriff of Polk-co., and former preacher, was arrested today charged with larceny and illegal disposal of liquor.

George Robb, a deputy and brother of the sheriff, was also arrested on the same charges. The two are accused in connection with the alleged disappearance of $30,000 worth of liquor from the county jail. Arrests were made by Coroner Clift, the only official empowered to take the sheriff into custody.

Rev. Robb became nationally known when he spared the trap, hanging two men convicted of murder.

The sensational arrest came on the eve of the sheriff's retirement from office. He planned to go on the lecture platform after January 1, to speak on "new evangelism."

HENDERSON TO BE MILITARY CHIEF

Marysville Man Named Adjutant General by Donahey

BORN ON FARM 41 YEARS AGO

Served in Mexican Campaign and World War

COLUMBUS—(United Press)—General Frank D. Henderson, Marysville, will be adjutant general of Ohio under the new administration, Governor-elect A. V. Donahey announced today.

This follows the announcement of the selection of Charles V. Truax, Sycamore, as director of the department of agriculture Friday night.

General Henderson was born on a farm near Marysville 41 years ago. He was a student at Ohio Wesleyan and Ohio State universities and a member of the cadet corps at both schools.

Except for time spent at school and military service, Henderson has been a farmer. He was Democratic candidate for state representative from Union-co. in 1920.

IN MEXICAN CAMPAIGN
The new adjutant general began his military career when he was commissioned first lieutenant of the Ohio national guard in 1906. He was later made a captain and then major. He served as major in the Mexican campaign in 1916-17.

During the world war Henderson was a major with the Rainbow division. He led the Bois-De-Chien raid, the first major military operation of the American army.

Following a course at the Tanagra, France, military college, Henderson was made a staff officer with the fifth army corps.

GIRL IS VICTIM OF GUNMAN

Kills Chicago Policeman in Attempt to Escape

GANGSTER IS WOUNDED

Fight Starts When Young Woman Spurns Thug's Greeting

CHICAGO—(Associated Press)—One of three men early today shot a high school girl as she was enroute from a school entertainment, killed a policeman and in turn was shot and probably fatally wounded by another patrolman.

The girl, Miss Minnie Finkelstein, 17, was shot thru the hip. Her wound was not serious.

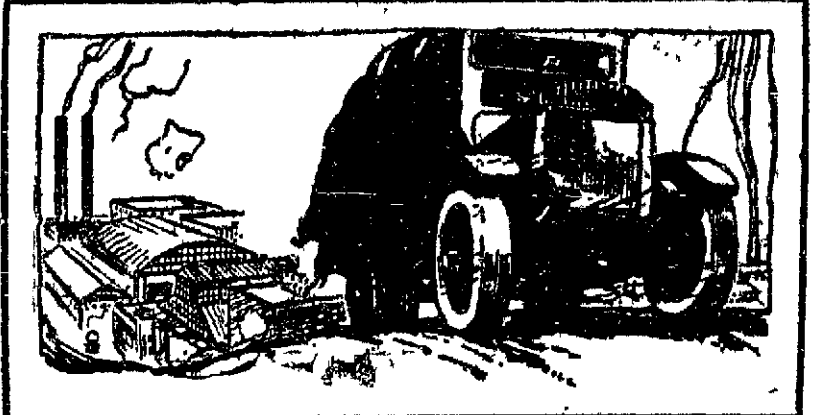

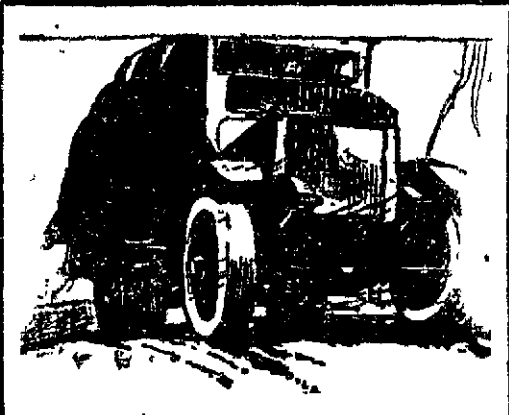

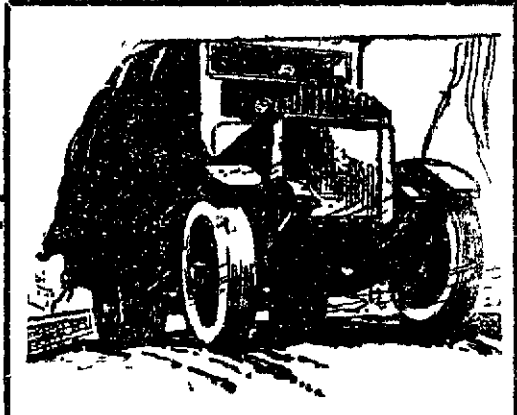

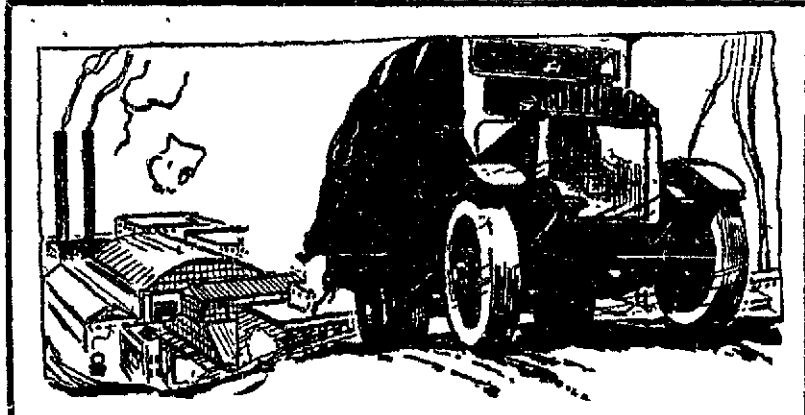

The dead officer was William J. O'Malley, a probationary policeman. Miss Finkelstein said the three men accosted her and another girl who were walking with her brother and another high school student.

When she protested one of the men began firing a pistol, all three running when the girl fell. Patrolman O'Malley, hearing the shooting, dashed up only to be shot three times. His partner shot the gunman. At a hospital the wounded man refused to identify himself.

Let The Lima News Want Ad Booklet Make Your Want Ads Pay

LIMA NEWS Want Ads are wonderfully productive little workers, especially when they are used rightly. Making a sale depends on four things: the market, the character of your offer, the price and the way in which you word your Want Ad. And the wording of a Want Ad is very often the most important! Even when your offer is fair and the market good, your Want Ad may fail to produce if it is not worded well. To insure the right kind of response, tell your story adequately. The Lima News has printed a booklet—"Wording a Want Ad to Make It Pay"—especially for the use of its Want Advertisers. This booklet will be mailed free to any one requesting it, in the hope that it will help to make Want Ads more effective.

Read What the International Correspondence Schools Say of "Wording a Want Ad—"

MR. G. L. SUMNER, Advertising Manager of the International Correspondence Schools, in an address before various advertising clubs in the Middle West, has recommended the use of a booklet, like The News'—"Wording a Want Ad to Make It Pay."

Mr. Sumner remarks that he has been trying to drive home the idea that advertising space is only so much opportunity to interest people in what you want to buy or what you have to sell.

Interest lies in detail. The Lima News has ferreted out all possible details in the various Want Ad classifications. These lists of essential details are invaluable in the writing of a Want Ad. Send for this free Booklet and use it in writing your next Want Ad.

LOW SCORE PREDICTED IN PANTHER-CARDINAL CLASSIC

PITT HAS EDGE

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal.—The University of Pittsburgh football team will meet the Stanford Cardinals here today in what promises to be a hard fought, low score game. Unbiased observers expect the easterners to win out, but Stanford fans hope their team will wear down the Panthers, whose strength may have been weakened by their trans-continental trip. In practice, however, the Pitt men have displayed no ill effects from their change from the cold of Pittsburgh to the warmth of California. Art Wilson, the key man in the Stanford offense system, will be kept out by injury. Unsettled weather was predicted for the game.

EHMKE LIKELY TO IMPROVE

BOSTON, Mass.—When Boston snapped Pitcher "Rip" Collins to Detroit for Howard Ehmke, it marked the widest trade ever pulled off. The American League figures show that no pitcher has had a tougher time making the ball bounce than Ehmke and Collins. Collins has always been erratic. Ehmke, however, until the last two years, has always had fairly good control. It is believed that the changing of Ehmke's style has had much to do with his wildness. Ehmke was a successful pitcher when he used a side-arm delivery with an occasional underhand ball. Cobb believed Ehmke would be much more effective if he used the underhand ball entirely and practiced on the big fellow to use that style.

In many games last year Ehmke was so wild that opposing players insisted that he was purposely using the "beast ball" to intimidate them. In all probability Ehmke will be allowed to work out his own ball by Boston next year. He will be allowed to pitch as he pleases. All the Boston club desires is results—games won.

Catchers Work Hard

Being a catcher in the big leagues is far different from what it used to be. Nowadays the job calls for a great deal more work. In the old days a receiver was only expected to toil every other day or so, and the backstopping duties were generally about equally divided between two men with a third filling in occasionally. A few seasons back it was more or less of an oddity for a catcher to work in 100 games during the campaign. Anywhere from 60 to 75 contests was the usual average. But times have changed until now the majority of the clubs depend almost solely on one catcher to do the bulk of the receiving. Even a second-string backstop, a valuable and necessary asset to a team, seldom gets much of an opportunity to show his wares. Obviously, the third receiver, if there is one, warms the bench for the major portion of the season, or else warms up the pitchers in the bullpen.

During the 1922 pennant race in the American League there were no less than seven catchers who performed in 100 games and over. Washington being the only club which failed to place a man in this class, the Giants came within four hits of the century figure, totalling 96 games. An injury to his arm alone kept Garry out of the century circle. Cy Perkins of the Athletics duplicated his 1921 feat of being the real "work horse," donning the mask and chest protector in 148 days. Incidentally the Mack bats beat his previous high mark by seven contests. Ray Schalk of the White Sox, holder of the honor on other occasions, ran second with 142 bouts to his credit, and "Hank" Severed of the St. Louis Browns was third with 137. Then came O'Neill, Cleveland, 137; Schang, Yankees, 134; Bassler, Detroit, 121, and Rust, Boston, 118. In the National loop, five receivers went over the 100 mark. O'Farrell of the Cubs leading the field with 128 games. Henline, Phillies, ran second with 125, followed in turn by Ainsworth, Cleveland, 119; Goetz, Pittsburgh, 105, and Snyder, Giants, 104. Ruggrove, Cincinnati, and Gowdy of the Braves just missed the select circle, the Moran catcher participating in 93 battles, and "Soldier" Hank in 92. Brooklyn was the only team not using one catcher in an entire season.

McMILLAN MAY GO TO BOSTON

NEW YORK — A trade whereby Herman McMillan, youthful third baseman for the New York Yankees, would be sent to the Boston Red Sox in exchange for Shane Collins was being discussed yesterday. It was said to have been the subject of a conference yesterday between Ed Barrow, business manager for the Yankees, and Harry Frazee, owner of the Red Sox. The two were unable to reach an agreement but may get together later on the proposition, it was said.

Never Pulled A Laundry Wagon

Major J. A. Barry of the Cavalry School at Fort Riley, Kansas, has just issued a denial of a recently published statement that Submersible was formerly a delivery horse. "When I bought this horse," Major Barry stated, "in the spring of 1919, he was unbroken and had never had a collar on. He was broken, trained, ridden and shown by me. "Because Submersible is one of the season's sensations, it might be interesting to state that he has only been in two shows. In 1921 he was shown in only four classes, winning the first leg of the Squadron "A" Challenge Cup, the Overton Cup for horses carrying up to 200 pounds. That year he was second to Allamonde in the charger championship and best cavalry remount. "In two years Submersible has entered 20 classes, won ten blue, 2 seconds and one fourth. The horse stands 15.2. He is seven years old, chestnut, by First Chip, sire; Grace Davis, dam. Submersible's disposition and manners are said to be perfect. As a quiet, powerful hunter, he stands absolutely to pitch, sabre and all other noises and excitement." Wayne Dinsmore, secretary of the Horse Association of America, recently stated that in two years time Submersible had won more than $3,000 in silver and $550 in money.

Tex Rickard Losing Iron Grip On New York Boxing

The iron rule of Tex Rickard in these fights in Little old New York seems doomed. For the fellow of William Muldoon, the joke head of New York's joke boxing commission, that Johnny Kilbane would not be allowed to fight Eugene Criqui or anybody else in Gotham is just the dying rattle of a boxing board that is doomed to be relegated to its proper place among the Joe Miller antiquities after the first of the year. And with the passing of that board, under the incoming democratic administration of Al Smith as governor of New York, is destined to pass the fight monopoly so long held by Tex Rickard. Muldoon's roar is being given the laugh that should be given to all good jokes. And the folks back of the Kilbane-Criqui battle are proceeding with its arrangements for next Decoration Day just as if Muldoon hadn't roared. Kilbane is preparing to hike to New York shortly after the first of the year, when Muldoon will be safely out of the way. And then will be completed the important details for the big international featherweight title battle, in which Johnny Dundee, the unrecognized New York world champion, is completely ignored. And the Kilbane-Criqui battle won't be staged by Tex Rickard, either. So far as things look now, Rickard won't even be considered. Making this the first great fight in which Tex has been ignored since he got his iron grip of New York's pugilistic throat. For the promoter of the Kilbane-Criqui battle is Tom O'Rourke, who quit the joke New York boxing commission in disgust because he found that all other members except the very busy Muldoon were mere figureheads. But a little is dealing the key to the commission that co-operated so nicely with Tex Rickard. A new fight deal is just ahead for New York. And Jim J. Walker, the democratic legislator who fathered the Walker bill that ordered New York to the fight game, will be one of the big men historically in New York under the new regime.

DELPHOS ON TOP

Despite great preparations which had been made to beat Delphos St. John's and which have been in the making every since the Rosarian defeat earlier in the season. The St. Rose quintet was unable to stop the visitors and took the count for the second time this year at the hands of the Delphos aggregation, the score being 15 to 7. Last minute injuries seriously hampered the Rosarians and Wells and Buchanan were the only two regulars who stayed in the game for the full time. Runger and Pablo McNamara were forced to witness the slaughter from the bench and Captain Jimmy Daley and Clifford Schmiesing were unable to play during the second half. Elmo Wells, who has been caging baskets regularly in practice was surrounded by three St. John's men at all times and he was unable to get a shot during the game. A capacity crowd witnessed the game. RUTH AFRAID OF PRUETT

BOSTON, Mass.—Babe Ruth still retains a sense of humor despite the poor season he had last summer. Recently, when asked what pitchers in the American League were hardest to hit, he replied in all seriousness:

"All of them." "Based on his opinion as to the hardest pitcher to hit, Babe didn't take long to answer. "That guy, Pruett" of St. Louis, has my number. I never even made a respectable foul off him. First base and I were total strangers when he pitched for the Browns. "I got a sense of humor and I was doing the pitching. If all the pitchers were like him for me, I could stay right on the farm as far as getting base hits. "That bird is deadly poison for me. He has three kinds of slow balls and five or six kinds of dinky curves. He gets a fellow's nerve. "I made a great pitcher out of that kid last season," concluded the interview with Babe.

ED MOLL TO HEAD LEAGUE

MUSKOGEE, Okla.—The election of Ed Moll to head the Southwest Baseball league, formerly secretary of the Milwaukee club of the American association for eight years a member of the national board of arbitration of organized baseball, is assured. It was said here Tuesday. Moll was elected by the board of Tulsa when the league holds its next annual meeting at Independence, Kas., on January 5. New Orleans opens its new fair grounds for racing and the New Year Handicap carries a purse of $5000. Bob Murphy of the Tulsa Oilers positively that Al Exendine will not be offered the coaching job next year.

BENTON LIKELY TO BE BARRED

CHICAGO—Return of "Rube" Benton, former Giant pitcher, reported to have been purchased from the St. Paul American Association club by the Cincinnati Reds to major baseball today was regarded as problematical, hinging upon investigation by K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, of his alleged connection with the 1919 world's series scandal. Reports from New York, quoting John Heydler, president of the National League as indicating Benton would be barred from that circuit brought a new turn to the situation yesterday. President B. B. Johnson of the American League previously had stated Benton would not be permitted to play in that organization. President Heydler's statement occasioned an announcement by Commissioner Landis in which he said an investigation was in progress of reports that Benton knew the 1919 world's series was "fixed" and used that knowledge to win a large sum. Benton was released by the New York Giants in a matter of days in the 1931 season, ostensibly for breaking training rules.

LARGE CROWD EXPECTED

DAYTON, Ohio—From all indications, the largest crowd that ever attended a boxing contest in this city will be on hand New Year's afternoon when Jeff Smith, uncrowned middle-weight champion and Fay Kiefer, Cumberland contender for the light-heavy weight title clash in a 12 round bout at Lakeside Park pavilion before the Miami Athletic club. Kiefer is on hand completing his training at a local gym and has impressed the fans with his skill and hitting powers. He is just the type of a fighter to beat Smith and many bets are being made that way. The remainder of the card will consist of a 10 round bout between Butcher Mitchell of Miami and Young Webb of this city and a 6 round bout between Jimmy Russell of Ashabula and Charlie Winters, local bantam-weight. The show will get underway promptly at 3 o'clock p. m. A heating system has been installed in the arena making it an ideal place to stage this stellar attraction.

OFFICIALS NAMED FOR BIG GAME

PASADENA, Cal.—The officials who will handle the Tournament of Roses game, the football contest between Pennsylvania State and the University of Southern California have been approved by the coaches of both eleven's, is become known Friday. They are: George Varnell of Spokane, Wash., formerly a football player at Chicago University; Tom Thorpe of New York, formerly at Columbia; Jack Wells of Los Angeles, formerly an Occident College player and C. J. McCarthy, whose college affiliations were not stated in the official announcement. Both the teams are here.

There will be offered for sale at public auction at the East door of the Court House at Lima, Ohio, between the hours of 10 and 11 A. M. on January 6th, 1923, the Fred Altstaetter Farm consisting of one hundred and twenty (120) acres of land, more or less, located one-fourth mile North of Cairo, Ohio. Terms of sale: one-third (1-3) cash; one-third (1-3) in one year; one-third (1-3) in two years. Property appraised at Twenty-five Thousand ($25,000.00) Dollars.

FREAK BATTLE ARRANGED

SAN FRANCISCO—Ed "Strangler" Lewis, world's champion heavy-weight wrestler, announced today that arrangements had been completed for a mixed match between Jack Dempsey, heavyweight pugilistic title holder and himself. Lewis produced signed articles covering the match which were drawn at Wichita, Kansas, and carried the signature of Jack Kossor, manager for Dempsey. Lewis said: "We have made this match. There are only a few details to be worked out. You can think what you want about it, but when I meet the champion of the world in the fist line he will learn he is meeting the champion of the world in a style of combat that doesn't call for putting gloves. "I do not want to boast but if I am thrown against the firm line with the world's champion pugilist, the people who like sports will get the same shock they received when Siki whipped Carpenter." The date and place of the match were not announced.

MOSTLY CAPTAINS

Notre Dame's 1922 football eleven might have been called a team of captains. Two of the regulars were varsity leaders in other sports. In addition to Captain Carberry, the grid leader, there were Paul Castner, captain of the baseball team and twice captain of the hockey team; Gus Deach, captain of the track team and the world's record holder for the 440-yard hurdles; Mickey Kane, captain of the basketball team, and Neil Flynn, captain of the hockey team. Twelve other men on the squad won letters in other sports. Kane and Castner had several major league offers for baseball last year, but they decided to continue thru the university.

THIRD DEGREE IS PASSING OUT
Chicago Police Substitute New Terrors of Psychology USED IN MURDER MYSTERY
"All Criminals Lie," Expert Says,
-Providing Basis

BY ROY GIBBONS
CHICAGO—Chicago police are substituting for the crude brutalities of "the third degree" the new terrors of psychology.
Thru practical application of psychological principles, particularly thru breaking down resistance of the conscious mind and liberating the unconscious mind, they are wringing confessions from criminals.
The new system is having its most spectacular test in the case of Albert Foster, arrested on a charge of first degree murder in connection with the mysterious disappearance of his former fiancée, Mrs. Kate Mitchell Trostell.
QUIZED 98 HOURS
For 98 hours—without sleep or letup—Detective Chief Michael Hughes and his assistants put Foster thru the psychological third degree.
There were no threats of physical violence, no shouting and denunciation, no shouting of firearms.
"We proceeded on the theory," Hughes explained, "that in every human being is a spark of decency, and if you can find that spark, the flame of truth is bound to leap outward."
At the end of 98 hours of psychological availing, Hughes had obtained from Foster a statement Mrs.
Trostell and he had quarreled, she was taken sick and she jumped into the drainage canal.
Had it not been for this statement, the police would have had to free Foster, for the body of Mrs.
Trostell has not yet been found.
Now the inquisition is proceeding with the purpose of wringing from Foster the truth about some stains found on his coat and on the runner board of his automobile. These stains were analyzed by an official chemist, who said they were human blood.
Foster's inquisitors first tried to build up before his mind's eye the image of the crime of which he was suspected. They held before him time after time a picture of Mrs.
Trostell. Often as many as 70 men surrounded him and piled him with questions.
"CAN'T STICK TO LIE"
"All criminals lie," said Hughes.
"But rare is the man who can stick to a lie. We find a liar will tell a different version of the same story to almost everyone. So we lead a suspect into telling lies, then we check him up, and finally in his mental confusion the truth will out."
"This, in effect, is what has happened in Foster's case."
Foster's confession came in the 98th hour when, by pre-arrangement, Mrs. Trostell's daughter entered the room and pleaded hysterically with him to tell her where her mother was.
The spark of decency, according to police psychologists, burst into the flame of truth, and then Foster was left away for a few hours' rest, after which the inquisition was renewed.

FAIL AT ONE PLACE, TRY
ANOTHER IN COAL THEFT,
TWO ADMIT; ARE FINED
The Cliff Wood Coal company was visited by wretched robbers Friday night.
They were unsuccessful and did not obtain any coal.
These facts are unimportant, except that they are divulged in police court Saturday morning by one of the men who admitted he attempted to secure coal without paying for it.
The story came out in this fashion.
Robert Merchant and George Pickering, both of 346 S. Union-st., were hauled into court on a charge of stealing coal from the United Coal company.
They admitted their guilt and in the course of the questioning stated that they had purchased coal from the Cliff Wood company.
"Why didn't you steal from them?" asked the judge.
"Because they didn't have any in the yards," was the answer, "we went there first."
Each was assessed $5 by the judge.
